

NEWS SUMMARY.

THE DISTILLERY.—The distillery of A. Reustroff, on Lombard street, above Second, was injured by fire on Saturday night to the extent of $10,000. The paper and rag establishment of Mr. John Simmons, in the basement of No. 311 Walnut street, was damaged to the amount of $2500 on Saturday night.

IN CONCORDIA HALL.—On Callowhill street, near Fifth, a large mass meeting of German citizens was held on Saturday night in favor of Dr. Schaeffer, who is under sentence of death for the murder of Miss Steenke, of Carlisle. Dr. Albert E. Schaeffer, president. Addresses were made by Frederick Dittman, Esq., Frank Wells, Esq., and by Dr. Kellner.

ON SATURDAY MORNING.—About 9 o'clock, an attempt was made by a gang of half-grown boys to set fire to the sheds adjoining the market house, corner of Twenty-first and Market streets.

A colored man was arrested on Saturday evening, on suspicion of having committed a robbery, and when he was taken to the Central Station and searched he had in his possession over two hundred dollars, and a book, with papers, belonging to a countryman whose pocket had been picked.

The following appointments have been made in the Philadelphia Custom House and Internal Revenue Department:—Jacob L. Baugh, Beaman; R. C. Shearman, additional clerk, Customs House; and George Koons, Assistant Assessor, Fourth district.

The first anniversary of the temperance organization known as the "Temperance Blessing," was celebrated on Saturday evening at Concert Hall. Judge Allison presided.

Domestic Affairs.

—Gold closed on Saturday at 123.

—It is thought probable that Congress will pass a Free Banking bill.

—A few more returns are to hand from Texas, but nothing definite is yet known.

—Charles H. Rogers, a commercial traveler, was found near Richmond, Va., yesterday, murdered and robbed.

—The House Committee on Elections will take up the case of the Twenty-first Congressional District to-morrow.

—The Ways and Means Committee spent Saturday in discussing the question of taxes on manufacturers of drugs.

—The Citizens' National Bank at Middletown, Del., was entered and robbed of a large amount of securities on Friday night.

—According to the Chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, the report on the Paraguayan question will not be ready for ages to come.

—Dr. Worthington, Appraiser for this port, has resigned his office, to accept the position of Secretary of the Board of State Charities.

—C. H. Needles, of this city, has carried a petition to Washington asking Congress to grant belligerent rights to Cuba. It contains thirty thousand signatures.

—Charles Brown, who has escaped after a three year, captivity among the Cheyenne Indians, reports that more than twenty white boys and girls are still in their hands.

—J. J. Eckel, whose name was brought prominently before the public in the celebrated Burdell murder case, and who was one of the principals in the famous Blaisdell and Eckel whisky frauds, died at the New York Penitentiary on Saturday morning.

—The National Board of Trade continued its session in Richmond on Saturday, and discussed many important questions. The subject of a sanction of specie payments was referred to a committee. In the evening the delegates were entertained at a banquet at the Exchange Hotel.

—To-day Senator Drake will introduce into the Senate a bill to define and regulate the jurisdiction of the United States Courts. The measure provides especially against the overthrow of the will of the people, expressed through their Representatives in Congress, by three or four men sitting as judges, and it is therefore, one of the greatest and most important bills to occupy Congress during the present session. Its necessity is undoubted, and our National Representatives cannot too soon give it their most serious consideration.

Foreign Affairs.

—Empress Eugenie returned to Paris yesterday.

—The barque Noel, the first mercantile vessel which navigated the Suez Canal with a cargo, has been wrecked in the Red Sea.
